

A Prayer of Thanksgiving

Lord, today thank you for the gift of each new day. I know I sometimes take it for granted but I recognize and admit that without Your breath in my lungs, I will not be alive.

Thank you for who You are, what You have done, what you are doing, and for what You are going to do.

Lord, thank You because if not for Your grace, I don't know where I would be. Your Word says that it is by Your grace that we are not consumed or destroyed.

Thank You for mercy that is new every morning. Without You Lord, I don't know how I would have made it this far. I might not be where I would like to be right now in life but I still want to thank You for where I am right now. I know that You who have begun a good thing in my life is faithful to bring it to completion.

Thank You Lord for what You are currently doing in my life. I know You are preparing me for the place You are taking me to, my promise land. It is because You love me that You take the time to make sure I am ready for the blessings You are bringing into my life. I know that it is because You don't want the weight of the blessings to crush me, so Father I say thank You.

Thank You for caring about my well-being. Thank You for taking the time to teach me, to lead me, and to guide me, making sure I am on the right path. Thank You for your Presence that goes before me, with me, and even behind me making sure I am protected from every side.

Thank You for giving Your angels charge over me and instructing them to lift me up before I dash my foot against a stone, against any hidden trap of the enemy.

Thank You for having good and wonderful thoughts about me, thoughts to give me a hope and a future; thoughts to give me an expected end. My life, my destiny is secure in Your hands.

Thank You for my family and friends. Thank You for blessing me with people around me that comfort and support me. Lord, I can't even count all my blessings, naming them one by one because they are just so much!

Thank You for meeting all my needs and doing exceedingly, abundantly all I can ever ask for, think, or imagine. Thank You for every good thing that I have.

Lord, I just want to say thank You for EVERYTHING!

In Jesus' Name, Amen!
